

The future of sustainable trade

November 15

Werkspoor Cathedral
Tractieweg 41
3534 AP, Utrecht, The Netherlands

Program

08:45 - 09:30 Arrival & Registration

09:50 - 10:30 Opening

- Official opening by IDH CEO Joost Oorthuizen
- Speech by Her Majesty Queen Máxima in her role as UN Secretary-General's Special Advocate for Inclusive Finance for Development (UNSGSA)
- Speech by Minister Sigrid Kaag of Foreign Trade and Development Cooperation

10:30 - 11:00 Official Launches

11:30 – 12:30 Partnership Panels

Parallel sessions

1. Cocoa & Forest Initiative
2. Finance for Landscapes
3. The Future of Food and Retail
4. Smallholder Value Chain Financing

12:30 – 14:00 Networking Lunch

November 9

14:00 - 15:30

Innovation Labs

Parallel Break Out Sessions

1. Making living income the outcome
2. Investing in smallholder profitability
3. New sustainable market mechanism: VSA
4. Prosperity and jobs: value creation in Africa
5. Working towards a joint agenda for living wages
6. Catalyzing Change: India - Secure Responsible Sourcing
7. Digital innovations to improve farm performance and value chains
8. IDH4Gender: where does the evidence take us?
9. New frontiers in sustainable manufacturing

15:30 - 16:00

The Art of Collaborative Transformation

Introducing 10 years of learning on what it takes to make real change toward sustainability in international trade.

16:00 - 17:00

The 5 dimensions of Collaborative Transformation

20 self selected groups discuss the 5 dimensions of transformation. What have we learned? What do we struggle with? What is the next step?

17:00 - 17:30

Keynote: Sunny Verghese

CEO of Olam; Chairman of the World Business Council for Sustainable Development

17:30 - 18:00

The Future of Sustainable Trade

Closing of the Event

18:00 - 20:30

Networking drinks & dinner

November 9